AMENDMENT
Constitutional Amendment

Shall Article XI, Section 13 of the Constitution of the State of Tennessee be amended by adding the following sentences at the end of the section:

The citizens of this state shall have the personal right to hunt and fish, subject to reasonable regulations and restrictions prescribed by law. The recognition of this right does not abrogate any private or public property rights, nor does it limit the state’s power to regulate commercial activity. Traditional manners and means may be used to take non-threatened species.

METRO CHARTER AMENDMENT
SUMMARY

This amendment would allow employees of the Metropolitan Government to also serve as part-time employees of the Metropolitan Board of Public Education to lead, teach, or coach students in extra-curricular activities and/or to serve as substitute teachers, and would allow certificated employees of the Metropolitan Board of Public Education to teach community education classes on a part-time basis. The Civil Service Commission would have the responsibility for adopting and promulgating rules and regulations necessary for the implementation of this amendment.

AMENDMENT

Section 12.05 of Article 12 of the Charter of The Metropolitan Government of Nashville and Davidson County shall be amended by deleting the provision of paragraph three and substituting with the following new provisions:
“No employee in the metropolitan service may hold more than one position or employment in the metropolitan service except as follows:
(a) School personnel between school years may be employed to work in other departments;
(b) Certificated school personnel may be employed on a part-time basis to teach community education classes; and
(c) Non-elected employees in the metropolitan service may be employed by the metropolitan board of public education on a part-time basis to lead, teach, or coach students in extra-curricular activities and/or to serve as substitute teachers.
The civil service commission shall adopt and promulgate rules and regulations necessary for the implementation of this section.”
